

Retailer should gather the information required from a persons Driver's License for the purchase of transmitting equipment. Amateurs can show a copy of their FCC License.

For amateur radio transmitting equipment, no license, no equipment is sold.

It's a good start, enforcement is to be seen.

Listen to 10 meters (Amateur Radio Band), swamped with illegal, unlicensed, foul-mouth, American English speaking imbeciles.